Who said each of the following lines?

| Is Rosaline, whom thou didst love so dear,          | Lord, how my head aches! what a head have I! |
| So soon forsaken? young men's love then lies      | It beats as it would fall in twenty pieces. |
| Not truly in their hearts, but in their eyes.     | My back o' t' other side,-O, my back, my back! |
|                                                     | Beshrew your heart for sending me about,    |
|                                                     | To catch my death with jaunting up and down! |

On the Back - Explicate the following quote (speaker, audience, significance, possible connection to theme):

Two such opposed kings encamp them still
In man as well as herbs, grace and rude will;
And where the worser is predominant,
Full soon the canker death eats up that plant.
